Fill the Scene
Trace the boat and finish drawing and coloring the story.

Read After a long night of fishing without a single catch, Jesus told Simon Peter, "Take the boat to deep water and let out your nets." When Peter did, he caught so many fish that the nets began to break! Simon Peter bowed and told Jesus, "I am not worthy to be in your presence." But Jesus told him, "From now on you will catch people instead of fish." Then Simon Peter left his boat and followed Jesus.

Main Idea:
Jesus chooses us
to be disciples.

Color the fish icon green to represent the change from Peter fishing for fish in the water to calling disciples on land.

Find Color the words from Luke 5:1-11 as you hear them in the worship service!

Search & Draw

Look around the sanctuary. Each of the people that you see is a disciple who Jesus called to do God's work! Draw three people you see:

Pray

Dear God, thank you for always being near me. I know I could never run
farther than you could follow. Help me to be a disciple
like Simon Peter,
following Jesus
every day. Amen.
